During these exceptional times CEMA Ltd are continuing to operate to deliver essential services to all our valued clients, whilst retaining our culture and values towards the health, safety and wellbeing of our colleagues, partners and customers. We continue to monitor the latest updates and are taking every possible step to ensure that we safeguard the health, safety and wellbeing of our colleagues. This will also enable us to retain our ability to support our supply chain and operate effectively. We are adhering to local and national Government and the World Health Organisation guidelines regarding exposure, self-isolation and reporting.

Considering the above, we have strategically and carefully managed the number of employees in our production facility and design offices at any one time. This will ensure that we maximise the social space guidance provided, whilst supporting the operational requirements. These measures will remain in place until 14th April 2020. If during this time you require immediate supports, please contact the following people;
